Heads up: Thurs / : Test of Vocab Energizers chapter

Thurs / : Autobiographies due in English

From the hectic moment we disembarked the shore boats to the damp morning we awoke before dawn to hike back to camp Catalina was an unqualified success (in spite of the whistles the knee bends the early curfews)

I hope you've all brought back something that will make you smile throughout the year something that will bring you closer as a class or simply something that you achieved beyond your expectations

Thanks for the memories
