General Guidelines:

- The purpose of this assignment is to give you creative license in expressing the content of the book. Feel free to use any technique you would like from pencil and pastels to PageMaker and Photoshop
- Carefully proofread all text and fact check biographical information on the author. An "images" search on Google will usually turn up a photo or two of any author. As for your own picture I leave that up to you
- Your blurb does not have to be lengthy. Probably well chosen words will suffice
